WELCOME FROM THE A.W.S.A. PRESIDENT

FOREWORD

As most of you will be aware I am a Queenslander by birth, and although I am always conscious of the need for neutrality in the execution of my duties I must admit there is just a little extra pride in welcoming competitors, officials and visitors to the 1982 Championships hosted by the S.Q.W.S.A.

The condition of the grounds and amenities is the result of prolonged effort in both fund-raising and labour and demonstrate what can be done by determined and dedicated effort by a relatively small number of people.

Given good weather everyone should thoroughly enjoy nine days of the best of women's soccer which will, to my way of thinking, outshine all but the very cream of the male competition.

It is my hope that everyone will participate in these Titles in a spirit of good sportsmanship and friendly (if keen) rivalry.

Good luck and good results.

PRESIDENT.

A.W.S.A.
